Fire TV Devices and Firesticks

- 2022 Amazon has now hidden the developer options menu. There is a slight variation in the steps depending on whether you have an Amazon device, such as the Fire TV Stick, or a pre-built Fire TV television.

Option 1 firesticks prior to 2022

1. On your Fire TV, open Settings and select My Fire TV.
2. Click developer options,
3. Turn ADB debugging and Apps unknown sources to ON.

Option 2 Firesticks post 2022

1. On your Fire TV, open Settings.
2. Select My Fire TV.
3. Select About
4. Highlight the first option in the list. This should be a reference to your specific device.
5. Press the remote as if you were selecting this item seven times.
6. When complete you should see a message telling you you're already a developer.
7. Press the back button on the remote to go back to the previous menu.
